Explanations on the Operating Results and Financial Conditions

From January to June 2026 (“Reporting Period”), the Company recorded revenue of RMB 10.392 billion, up 26.92% year over year, with operations outside China contributing more than 65% of revenue. For the building materials, the Company produced approximately 110 million m² of ceramic products, an increase of approximately 12.52% year over year, and produced more than 170,000 metric tons of float glass. Overall, the building materials segment generated revenue of RMB 4.929 billion, up 30.70% year over year, with a gross margin of 43.88%, a year-over-year increase of 7.08 percentage points. For the building materials machinery, currently the Company has operated 14 production bases and over 120 service locations worldwide. In the first half of 2026, the Company's building materials machinery business recorded revenue of approximately RMB 3.077 billion.

The net profit attributable to shareholders of the listed company amounted to RMB 1.284 billion, of which, benefiting from the rise in lithium carbonate prices, Lanke Lithium Industry recorded revenue of RMB 2.543 billion and net profit of RMB 1.411 billion, contributing RMB 0.615 billion to the Company's net profit attributable to owners of the parent, an increase of 266.21% year over year.

The net cash flows from operating activities in the Reporting Period increased by 106.98% compared to the same period of the previous year, mainly due to the expansion of the Company's sales, which led to an increase in cash received from sales of goods and provision of services in the Reporting Period.
